CHANGE IN DESIGN

Paul M. Jacobs, president of the American Crabmeat Co., manufacturer of Three Little Kittens All-Fish Cat Food, has announced that new labels for his cans of this outstanding cat food, will contain the Cats Magazine Seal of Approval. Nearly every grocery store and pet shop, coast to coast carries this big seller. Initial order placed for the new labels is for 10 million for the first few months of 1950, proving that this product, now a gigantic seller, is perhaps something your cats and kittens may have missed.

OUR CATS

CALIFORNIA MARKED FOR LEGISLATIVE ACTION AGAINST CATS AND CAT OWNERS

"The Marauding Cat Bill will pop up again you can be certain of that. It is NOT dead. Let us be prepared for this eventuality . . . ."

This appeared in the editorial found on page 5 of the June 1949 issue, in commenting on the heroic veto action by Governor Adlai Stevenson against the Marauding Cat Bill that SUCCESSFULLY PASSED both Houses of the Illinois State Legislature.

The prophecy has been fulfilled. The State of California has been selected as the campaign grounds for a similar bill. Machinery is already set in motion and the campaign propaganda is well underway. The new drive was launched under date of July 5, 1949 by the Friends of the Birds, sponsor of the original Illinois bill, from its headquarters at 2502 Chapala Street, Santa Barbara, California.

The initial letter over the signature of Gertrude Charny, president of the Friends of the Birds has this to say about feline conditions in California:

"The cat situation here is beyond belief. I have even come across a number of instances of deliberate enticement of song birds, chiefly the Mockingbird, as food for cats. There is much to do—a long, hard pull, but I am on my way."
Get that—"I AM ON MY WAY."

There's the challenge for those of you in California to get busy immediately. Friends of the Birds is now well on its way to tie up California legislators, the Governor of California and other outstanding California personalities in civic and political life.

Friends of the Birds is manned by experienced heads. It knows how to act and where to bring the proper pressure to bear. It has been through one SUCCESSFUL campaign in Illinois when it SUCCEEDED in having the Marauding Cat Bill passed by the legislature there.

Illinois cat owners were LUCKY. Fortunately Governor

Adlai Stevenson of Illinois, a cat owner, vetoed that Bill. California cat owners may not be so fortunate.

Friends of the Birds is sending out the big build-up propaganda now, and at the same time is recruiting members and accumulating a campaign fund for its Big Bill in California.

California cat owners must rally again this campaign NOW! There is much work to be done. This is a problem confronting every cat owner in the State. They cannot leave it to others to do, or to sit and stare at this print. They must GET MAD AND GO TO WORK TODAY!

Much work must be done to counter-balance the start made by the Friends of the Birds, which now has better than a five-month start.

There are 40 senators and 80 representatives comprising the California State Legislature. California cat owners MUST KNOW THE STAND OF EACH AND EVERY ONE OF THESE members and prevail upon them to VOTE DOWN any crack-pot legislation involving cats that may be foisted upon them.

California cat owners must know the definitely expressed opinions of their representatives on the question of The Cat and Its Future in California.

CATS MAGAZINE pledges itself to aid and abet the cat owners of California in their efforts to thwart any and all attempts to stifle the owning of cats in the State through passage of some nefarious feline legislation which is definitely the object and underlying principles of the Friends of the Birds.

The July 5 letter from the Friends of the Birds also passes out the enlightening information in a postscript that "You can get directions for making a cat trap from Wildlife Leaflet 269, U. S. Dept. of Interior, Washington, D. C. or you can buy one from National Live Trap Co., Tomahawk, Wis. Best bait is catnip or salmon."

ROMANS DOMESTICATED CATS IN BRITAIN, EXCAVATIONS REVEAL

Bones, identified as those of a cat, have been found at a depth of 12 feet during archaeological excavations at Lullingstone, Eynsford, in Kent, Britain. The discovery, made in September, is the first evidence so far obtained that the Romans during their occupation of Britain more than 1,600 years ago, domesticated and kept cats as family pets.

The bones have been identified as those of a cat that lived between the years A. D. 300 and A. D. 400. They were included among the spectacular finds consisting of marble busts, mosaic floorings, bronze ingots and pottery of this period at the site, on which stood the villa of a Roman of high position.

The fact that the household kept a cat was discovered by Mr. Ernest Grenfield, an amateur archaeologist of London. He told reporters of the English press: "There is no doubt that the Romans in ancient Britain put the cat out at night and were troubled with mice. This particular cat had a tragic end. The villa was destroyed by fire, and the cat was killed by falling masonry."

When news of the discovery was telephoned to the University of London's Institute of Archaeology, experts were rushed to the scene. The bones of the cat were sent to the institute for examination by Dr. F. E. Zeuner, professor of Environmental Archaeology, and a report of his study will no doubt be made some time after the first of the year.

Until now, there has been no record when the cat became domesticated in Britain. The earliest written record of domestic cats there is found in a law for their protection passed by the Welsh chieftain, Howel the Good in A. D. 936.

This law stated that anyone who stole or killed a cat that guarded the Prince of Wales' granary was to forfeit a milch ewe, its fleece, and lamb, or as much wheat as when poured on the cat suspended by its tail (the head touching the floor) would form a heap high enough to cover the top of the tail.

Howel the Good, who was the Prince of Wales, fixed the price of a kitten before it could see at a penny; after it had captured a mouse, two-pence; and if it gave further proof of its usefulness, it was valued at four-pence.

The discovery in Kent virtually eliminates the general opinion that the cat was almost neglected by the Romans, although it has been reported that the likeness of a cat often emblazoned the flags and the shields of the Roman soldiers.

KITTEN GIVEN "LIFE" IN MASS. PRISON

Dr. Miriam Van Waters, superintendent of the Women's Reformatory, Framingham, Mass., presented a Persian kitten to Eugene E. Budd, serving an 18-20-year sentence in the Massachusetts State prison at Charlestown, Mass., for armed robbery.

Warden John J. O'Brien gave permission for the kitten to become a "lifer" at the prison at the suggestion of the Rev. Howard P. Kellett, Protestant chaplain at the Charlestown institution. Budd is the minister's prison clerk.

The kitten, unnamed, has the run of the cell block where Budd is confined at night. During the hours he is out of the cell, the kitten is quartered in the chaplain's office.

HISTORY OF THE AMERICAN CAT FANCY

PART 11 — THE RUSSIAN BLUES

BY CHARLES A. KENNY

(Copyright 1949, by Charles A. Kenny. Must not be reprinted or quoted without written permission.)

The first known-to-be imported Russian Blue short hair cat was obtained by Mrs. Clinton Locke of Chicago just at the turn of the Twentieth Century. This was a male named Blue Royal and was registered in Volume I of the Beresford Stud Book, dated July 1900.

Blue Royal was born in 1899 and was purchased from the breeder, a Mr. G. Towleron Flanshome of Wakefield, England. He had AMBER EYES!

This article on Russian Blue Cats is published at a time when American breeders are endeavoring to import such cats, following the recognition of the Class, first by the American Cat Association at its annual meeting in Chicago in April of this year (1949), and more recently by the Cat Fanciers' Association at its quarterly meeting held in New York during October.

Both Associations have accepted the standard as written by the Short-Haired Cat Society of Great Britain and adopted officially by the Governing Council of the Cat Fancy (England).

The present standard decrees that the color of the eyes of the Russian Blue Cat "should be as vividly green as possible."

Therefore, something has happened to the standard since 1900! The color of the eyes of the Russian Blue has been changed. The standard as drawn up originally by the British Cat Club and published in The Book of the Cat by Frances Simpson (Cassell & Company, Ltd., London 1902) states that the eyes will be "deep orange in colour."

When this changeover from orange to green was effected must be left to some one member of the English cat fancy, who has the data available. This writer does not have the information.

Since the eyes of a cat as far as color is concerned definitely determines its classification, then it seems likely that the Russian Blue of yesterday as compared with the Russian Blue of today, are two distinct and separate classes of foreign shorthair.

It is the writer's opinion that the green-eyed Russian Blue of today is not a Russian Blue in the strict interpretation of the standard of yesterday, or vice-versa. Therefore, why accept the name, Russian Blue, for the modern version?

Harrison Weir who staged the first cat show in England in the 1870s, refers to the Russian cats as a LONG HAIR BREED in his book, Our Cats, slanted at the cat fancy. No reference is made to eye color.

As a result, it is the opinion of this writer that the only SAFE and PLAUSIBLE way of deciding the issue is CHANGE THE NAME OF THE CLASSIFICATION, eliminating the name, Russian. This, of course, must be approved by the American Cat Association and the Cat Fanciers' Association, both of whom recognize the class in the past by reason of their acceptance of the cats in their respective stud books.

Volume I of the American Cat Association stud book, published in 1907, lists 14 Russian Blue cats—six males and eight females. Wherever indicated, the entries are listed as possessing ORANGE, YELLOW, COPPER OR AMBER EYES.

Volume I of the Cat Fanciers' Association stud book, dated 1909, has a single entry, Peterkin, a male Russian Blue with YELLOW EYES. The cat was owned by Miss Jane Cathcart of Oradell, N. J. It was purchased from the breeder, Mrs. E. A. Clark of Bath, England. Sire was The Muscovite and the dam, Oka.

Mrs. Carew Cox, who specialized at the turn of the Century in England with Russian cats wrote that many of them were imported from Northern Russia. In her description she writes, "The eyes of a Russian should be golden in colour, or deep orange."

CALIFORNIA LAUNCHES COUNTER BLOCKADE TO HEAD OFF LEGISLATIVE BILLS AGAINST CATS

GUY BOGART ORGANIZES CAT FRIENDS

A counter-acting force to smash the campaign of the Friends of the Birds in the State of California has just been organized.

Dr. Guy Bogart of Beaumont, California, has launched the California Friends of the Cats to combat the concerted efforts of the Friends of the Birds adherents in their efforts to obtain state legislation to stifle the owning of cats in the State of California. His California Friends of the Cats campaign is now underway.

Friends of the Birds started its California drive in July of this year from its newly established headquarters in Santa Barbara, California, with the president of the organization, Gertrude Charny, sending forth a letter under date of July 5, 1949 to its mailing lists throughout the United States. One of these mimeographed letters was relayed to CATS MAGAZINE after it was received by a resident of the State of Washington.

The letter is the opening salvo "after the dark time following the shock of the Governor's veto," to quote the opening salutation, in the drive to bring about derogatory cat laws in California.

Friends of the Birds literally rocked the humane world of America when it succeeded last Spring in sponsoring legislation in the State of Illinois to curtail the freedom of pet cats and restrict the ownership of them by levying fines against owners. Governor Stevenson of Illinois, a cat owner, promptly vetoed the bill instead of signing it into law it had successfully passed both houses. This was the famous Marauding Cat Law.

The California letter states that the "cat situation" in California "is beyond belief."

An appeal is included in behalf of the Illinois Friends of the Birds to "please help to keep the Illinois organization a going concern." Mrs. Genevieve Benson of Chicago is the secretary.

"UNCLE GUY" BOGART, CALIFORNIA SPORTSMEN, STARTS DRIVE AGAINST CALIFORNIA'S IMPENDING CAT LAWS

Dr. Guy Bogart, 545 Euclid Avenue, Beaumont, California, is the director of the California Friends of the Cats, which he is organizing to frustrate the attempts of the Friends of the Birds to bring about legislation in the State of California against cats and their owners.

The director is a well known sportsman, writer and cat lover and has done much to spread interest in cats throughout the United States. "Uncle Guy," as he is affectionately known, is also a harness racing judge.

Perhaps he is best known for staging the annual Cherry Festivals at Beaumont which attracts visitors from all sections of the United States. He is also interested in Rotary work and in 1932 was presented a silver cup for "most outstanding services" in this activity.

In 1931 he constructed the Bogart Bowl at Beaumont. It seats 25,000 and is primarily used for pageants connected with the Cherry Festival and other civic and state-wide events. He has retired from many of his active pursuits in the civic and elective fields but continues his position publicizing California's cherries.

During the past year he has been active with National Cat Week throughout the State of California and performed an outstanding service in this respect. When asked to take hold of an organization to combat the campaign of the Friends of the Birds, he accepted immediately. In this respect he writes:

"I feel no formal organization is needed for the California bird-cat situation; the nation is often over-organized. We need organized effort more than organizations in this case. We will just call our organized effort California Friends of the Cats."

DR. GUY BOGART

Californians who are interested in working with Dr. Bogart in combating the mounting campaign to legislate against California's cats and cat owners are urged to contact him immediately, by writing to Beaumont. Within the next thirty days he hopes to have completed a state-wide plan to begin action at once. Since the campaign by the Friends of the Birds is directed at the State Legislature, as was the case in Illinois, Dr. Bogart may adopt the same methods in his heading off drive. It is expected that the nucleus of this drive will be centered in Hollywood among the motion picture interests where he is well known and where a powerful branch of the counter-movement could be realized.

Dr. Guy Bogart of Beaumont, California, who is now the director of California Friends of the Cats, has many articles and poems printed in publications throughout the United States. He composed the official poem for the 1949 celebration of National Cat Week, titled "Your Cat Speaks," which is herewith reproduced through the courtesy of the offices of National Cat Week at Pittsburgh, Pa.

YOUR CAT SPEAKS By Dr. Guy Bogart

APPRECIATION I ask
For ages of service.
I have saved your granaries,
Guarded your grain,
Routed your enemies in field and barn,
Watched your homes,
Saved your stores.
I have graced your firesides,
Purred on your desks,
Snuggled in your laps,
Shared your sorrows and joys,
Heralded your sunsets and greeted your dawns,
Filled your years and warmed your hearts.

UNDERSTANDING I ask
Of my path across the centuries—
Loved, revered, worshipped;
Hated, scorned, persecuted—
Yet always your friend!
Give me a place in your plans,
Knowledge that I serve and love,
That without me your granaries grow less,
Since I guard all you possess.
BETTER CARE I ask—
Luxuries from those who love me,
A home to share,
A nap in the sun
When my work is done;
A saucer of milk,
Your caress of my furred silk;
Fragrance of flowers while they last,
Warmth from the wintry blast.

News of the West

BIBBO THE CAT is well-known to local readers of the San Francisco News in which his picture appears every Saturday on Ruth Thompson's JUNIOR PAGE, while his column starts out modestly with "Meow Beautiful Me," and continues with a series of greetings which he calls Whisker Tickles." These are for children who send in their own and their pets' names and are then enrolled in The News Junior Club by President Bibbo, who duly lists kittens, puppies, turtles, mice and toys; it is a most popular idea and the kids love it.

Keenly interested in cat welfare, The News has just published the story of "Meow! Hungry Me! Train Weary Bibbo Found in a Boxcar." This orange and white cat arrived in Los Angeles after being locked in a sealed car for 14 days without food or water. Word was promptly sent to Chicago where the cat is the mascot of the Empire Freight Co., and after being well fed, plans were made to return him to Chicago and his worried friends. So it is not always the show cats who make news.

Long Beach Cat Fanciers however are making news this week with their fourth show held in the Masonic Auditorium of that attractive city—under ACA rules and with Dr. Frances McCracken of Detroit officiating as judge. Dr. McCracken has long been known as a breeder of Siamese and Silver Tabby Shorthairs; she will find plenty of Siamese to judge, but we are not sure about the Silver Tabbies, though Vivian Osburn has bred some beauties. However a great point of interest at Long Beach will be the Russian Blues which will make their first California appearance at this show. Mrs. Blanche Warren has purchased two kittens from the El Rosario Cattery of Mr.

Cromhaire in Texas and has also imported one—perhaps—two—mature cats from Denmark. I am sorry I do not know their names as yet, but perhaps Mrs. Warren will send me a marked catalog. Polly Jones also has a pair of these kittens which bear the resounding names of El Rosario Tovarich Dimitri and El Rosario Olga of Lamar; I don't know if these kits are to be at Long Beach, but I feel sure they will appear at Hollywood under the English standard which has been recently adopted by the Cat Fanciers' Association, Inc. Polly writes that these little Russians have the tiniest of voices and the gentlest of manners. In appearance, the Russian Blues are very slender in build with green eyes and a very lustrous coat of sealskin-like texture. We shall have more to tell about them in a later issue.

Creams are making their way as a breed in the West as well as in the East, and we expect all shows will have an increased entry of this beautiful breed. Mrs. Fred Wildenhuis has added a Cream male kitten, El Gato Azul's Mario, purchased from Mrs. Emily de Haas, to her cattery; with Mario came El Gato Azul's Ramon, a promising young Blue who immediately made friends with Susie's Blue male, Leilani's King Kamehameha and Blue Lace Rosepointe.

Rosabelle of Rosegate, is owned by Mrs. Pinkston of Chico, and Dr. and Mrs. Harwood of the same city have purchased a young son of that famous Cream, Ch. Longhill's Lightning (Best Cat at Rhode Island show) owned by Mr. Anthony De Santis, secretary of the Garden State Cat Club, Inc. A recent note from Andy says I am missed at Garden State and "am I going to stay in California?" Well it looks that way, though I do miss Eastern friends and Eastern shows.

Mrs. W. A. Kessler of Sacramento and her young Cream male, made the news this month with a very good picture in the Sacramento Bee—in fact the picture of both is so good that we wish she would send us a copy. Mrs. Kessler raises Persians of several colors and has long been known as a breeder and exhibitor of Blues. But in addition to her cat breeding, she also raises white mice which live in full sight of the cats and are regarded by them with great interest. The Bee pictures the mice too—but not together! Now if Mrs. Kessler will send us a close-up (but not too close) of her cat and mouse family, we know our readers would find it most interesting.

Mrs. C. N. Powell, Chatami Cattery, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, writes us of the newly formed Inland Empire Cat Club (ACA) of which she is president: "The club is ACA and made up mostly of Siamese breeders as Persians are in the minority here. We plan this coming year to put on an educational campaign concerning cats. We held an Exhibition in Carpenter's Hall, Spokane, on November 3rd instead of a sanctioned show; it was everything we had hoped and the attendance and enthusiasm were wonderful and we are sure that next year we can have a fine show. My own Chatem's Melody, 3 months Chinchilla Persian, had her picture in a Spokane paper advertising the exhibition and her fan mail has been so great that I've been days answering the response; her sire is Kildare Puck Adair and her dam Nani Lei Silver Angelette." Our thanks to Mrs. Powell and please send us the "fan" picture.

Mildred Joseph sent Angelette to Mrs. Powell last year, but a recent visit to Nani Lei Cattery showed no dearth of Silver kittens, likewise Black ones. And there are some fine year-old Smokes which should make their appearance at coming shows. The cats have large out-door runs and all are full of health and pep.

Mrs Meader, Golden Gate secretary, is specializing in Siamese, while her daughter, Nancy, is raising a litter of Silver kittens; we hope all of them are going to our show.

I have always said that Isabel Meader and Dorothy Denning would make a fine team if they managed Golden Gate Show and they certainly are hard at work at that difficult task. Mrs. Denning has Blues, Creams and beautiful Blue-creams. These three catteries are all located in the suburb of Hayward; all are well kept notwithstanding show work and the constant driving back and forth to Oakland; you'll meet them all at the show.

Golden Gate is now considering the question of holding at least one specialty, probably a Siamese; information on this may be had from Dorothy Denning, Show Manager, P. O. Box 577, Hayward, California. The new show location, Oakland Exposition Auditorium is a favorable one for exhibitors as it is so well-known for shows of all sorts; also the free parking will be a boon to those of us who have struggled with parking lots and traffic.

Sergeant and Mrs. Swayne are now on a honeymoon trip up the Coast; on their return they will be for a time with Mrs. Sylvia until Sergeant Swayne returns to the Philippines, where he is on active service. Mrs. Sylvia and Marie are very popular and faithful members of Golden Gate Club and we all join in congratulations and good wishes to the newly married couple.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Clifton are en route to Long Beach show taking with them three of the Norcliff cats—among them their Tortie champion, Cherie's Fluffy who has been an outstanding show winner; they are traveling by train in a roomette so that the cats—not Mr. and Mrs.—will have

1949 ALL-MIDWESTERN RED TABBY, DOLL DANCE EXPORTED TO ENGLAND

MRS. V. E. PETERSON'S GREAT PERSIAN SENT TO ADD NEW BLOOD TO DEPLETED STOCK

Champion Eastmoor Doll Dance, 1949 All-Midwestern Red Tabby female, long hair Persian has been sent to England to strengthen the line of Red Tabbies, it has, at last been revealed. She was shipped aboard the Queen Mary on May 20, 1949.

Doll Dance, one of the outstanding Red Tabbies to compete in the show ring during the 1948-49 season, was bred and originally owned by Mrs. V. E. Peterson of Niles, Michigan. She completed her championship at 9 months of age taking First and Winners in the Open Class at Boston in January. She gave birth to one male and two females one month after her arrival in England in a Government Quarantine Station, where she was obliged to remain until her release, scheduled November 20.

Her kittens were removed from her and turned over to Mrs. Gertrude and Miss Lelgarde Cambell Fraser of Godalming, Surrey, well known English breeders, who purchased Doll Dance. The kittens will eventually be sold to three outstanding breeders in different sections of the United Kingdom, thus assuring a complete and highly successful mission of supplying England with much needed new Red Tabby bloodlines.

The English press commented at length on the newly acquired American cat stating that "this cat and her kitten came over from U. S. A. to strengthen the British strain."

Final arrangements for the selection of Doll Dance and her ultimate transfer to her new home in Europe was arranged by Miss Elsie Hydon president of the Cat Fanciers' Association. Prior to her sailing Doll Dance was bred to her grandsire, Ch. Major Maroon, a Red tabby, owned by Mrs. Peterson.

It is interesting to note that Doll Dance carries the name of Grand Champion Imp. Eastbury Trigo on her dam's side of the pedigree. Her dam was Ch. Hedgerow's Garnet of Eastmoor, 1948 All-Midwestern Red Tabby, owned by Mrs. Peterson.

It is interesting to note that Doll Dance carries the name of Grand Champion Imp. Eastbury Trigo on her dam's side of the pedigree. Her dam was Ch. Hedgerow's Garnet of Eastmoor, 1948 All-Midwestern Red Tabby, owned by Mrs. Peterson.

Eastbury Trigo is perhaps the greatest Red Tabby show cat the world has ever known, based of course on show performance and breeding ability. England so regards Trigo in that vein and has freely regretted the exportation of her to America. Miss Hydon imported Trigo to America and later sold him to Arch E. Horne who sold him in turn to Mrs. John H. Hunt-

HISTORY OF RUSSIAN BLUES

The first pedigree Russian Blues arrived in America in September 1947. They were imported by Mr. C. A. Comhaire of Texas. These were a male and female of the same litter born in February 1947. The male is Dunloe Jan, and the female, Dunloe Blue Silk. The two cats are green-eyed. In a letter to the writer, Mr. Comhaire revealed that he did not intend to breed the pair, maintaining that he was opposed to close breed-breeding. He stated that he was expecting a different bloodline from a breeder in Denmark. No other information has been received from Texas. However, it appears likely that the Danish stock did arrive, and it is from the English-Danish combination that two California breeder-exhibitors obtained their specimens which were expected to make their debut at West Coast shows during the 1949-1950 season.

What the future holds for the Russian Blue in America depends entirely on what decisions are made by the registry associations during the near future. If they are sincere in their plans to "cultivate" the class throughout the United States as a new and interesting animal, now is the time to change the name to give it the popularity it deserves. Certainly, the name Russian is anything but appealing to

by BILLIE BANCROFT
ASSOCIATE EDITOR

Yesterday my telephone rang—it was a friend in New York, assuring me he had something unusual to show me and saying it was truly worth a trip into town to see his new cat because that cat was PURPLE—I poo-pooed the idea—and told him I had seen all shades of Blues and he probably had a lightish lavender blue. But he said no—it was a White Persian turned purple—I asked if he had consulted a vet. He said no—that the cat was in perfect health so why should he go to a doctor.

Well!—as he perfectly well knew—I had to see that cat. An old Nursery rhyme kept going over and over in my mind—"I never had a purple cow—I never hope to see one"—or something like that I've forgotten just how it goes. But—a White Persian turned purple—that I must see! I made a date for luncheon but stopped in at his office first. Yes—his cat was purple all right—he had turned over a bottle of purple ink—and rolled in it—handsome, arrogant, big-footed. Comanche was stalking around in elegant pride because all who entered that office were tongue-tied with surprise. Comanche's bushy plume, and the left side of his body was a deeply, dyed purple.

And did he adore the attention he commanded—I would not be a bit surprised to hear he had tipped another bottle of ink and dyed the other side of himself. (Yes—Dan Hartley gets this month's dollar for the first story. Dan is a U. P. newspaper man, Comanche is the office mascot).

Out in Long Island there is a charming little lady called Florence Hamilton. She tells me her Red Gold, a large male Persian, does everything but talk. He loves catnip—and likes to go on catnip sprees. If he is not given his catnip as often as he thinks he should have it, what do you suppose Red Gold will do? He figures that Florence is just too busy to remember that it is time for his catnip-tea. He knows where she keeps it—so—he finds the pint Mason Jar—and carries it to her, (yes he has very strong jaws—unusually strong), places the jar at her feet—and demands in a loud voice—that he be served. You see the catnip is tightly wrapped in cellophane and he can see the delectable stuff but does not know quite how to get it out. Florence tells me she thinks he has solved this problem—because he watched her carefully as she unwrapped it for him. Florence Hamilton is turning out a new color in Reds—she is breeding for a lightish red and she is calling them Blond Gold—this particular male who belongs to Catnip Anonymous is a typical illustration of her strain of Blond Golds.

Sally Partlan of Detroit, brings me sad news and glad news. Biblot of Babylon, passed over the border into the Feline Valhalla of Odin—Peace to her ashes—a brown tabby and a queen in every sense of the word—she died at the age of thirteen years—there will be others but none that take the place of Biblot. As if to comfort Sally for the loss of this little queen—her Grand Champion, Beau Barry turns Thespian and stars on television, station WWJ.

Up in Harrisburg the other day, Mr. M. P. Smith was telling me about Sunny Boy. Mr. Smith is an ardent Saturday Evening Post reader. He was sitting in his library contemplating renewing his subscription to this magazine when there was a knock on his door, it was a teen age girl—soliciting subscriptions to a number of magazines—among them the Saturday Evening Post. Sunny Boy was basking in the window—the girl was importantly embarrassed with her first business talk and Mr. Smith, being a prankster of no mean ability, suddenly suggested that she take a subscription to the Post for Sunny Boy Smith—Sunny Boy—hearing his name—blinked in puzzlement—but nevertheless pleased—listened as he heard his boss-man order The Saturday Evening Post, and a three-year subscription, mind you, to be sent to Sunny Boy Smith. The girl went home delighted that she was a super career woman and mailed the order immediately to the Curtis Publishing Company. A few hours later Mr. Smith decided the joke had gone far enough—he'd better call on the youngster's mother and explain the joke. The mother informed him—that the subscription had already gone out—and they both had a laugh. Thereafter for the next three years—Sunny Boy Smith was a regular subscriber to the Post.

A letter has just reached me regarding a Kangaroo Cat that weighs thirty pounds, owned by Mrs. Leah Hamberly, Philadelphia. I'm going down this week and I'll look it up—it should be an interesting specimen.

Joan McMurphy, Morristown, New Jersey, tells me her Cream Chocktaw Chief is just about the most wonderful thing that ever wore whiskers—and his WHISKERS are really something—even Chocktaw admits his whiskers are superior to any others seen in pictures—and he has looked over the late Charles Evans Hughes, Rex Stout, George Bernard Shaw and The Man Who Came to Dinner.

Tom Drydon, a bachelor free lance, tells me he has the most adorable little queen—I supposed it was some blond friend until he began to describe her—impish—coquettish—lovable—being very feminine with her beaux—but she is roughly masculine will all dog callers, most of the canines depart from her presence yowling from Kit's sharp right jab. Kit is a little Tortie queen, Persian tribe, beautifully marked and such a lovable little

Down in Riverdale, New Jersey, live the Zimmermanns, they are owned and possessed by one little colored Persian gal named 'Sultania.' Jack Zimmermann snores—just once in a great while you understand—but 'Tana'—has decided to break him of this habit—and she is aided and abetted by her mistress—now Jack is feeding 'Tana' choice bits of food and demanding a strict account of how she has been treated, while he was at the office—Mrs. Zimmermann says it is beginning to affect 'Tana.'

HISTORY OF RUSSIAN BLUES

Americans today with the strange carryings on politically and religiously behind the Iron Curtain.

As a suggestion for a name that could be adopted, why not Continental Blue?

Mr. T. B. Mason, noted English judge at the same time wrote in the February 1903 issue of Fur and Feather, "To call them Russians is a mistake, seeing that a very large number are crosses from some other variety . . . and have little Russian blood in them. Then why call them Russian?"

These two authorities—breeder and judge—completely discount the theory of Harrison Weir that the class was Long Haired, however, one of them maintains that the eye color is golden or deep orange. Mrs. Cox should certainly know, if she herself imported them from Russia. Mason, however, is somewhat dubious of the country of origin.

All this leads up to a very complex problem that should be clarified as soon as possible. Several breeders have taken considerable efforts and have gone to heavy expense to obtain these Russian Blue specimens with the object of establishing the breed eventually throughout the United States. It is only right that protection be given them in their investment. Logical reasoning points emphatically to a change in the name and the elimination of the word Russian, entirely from it.

OCTOBER BRINGS WAVE OF DISTEMPER IN BOSTON

During the "Indian Summer" that enveloped Boston during mid-October, an apparent wave of "panleucopenia"—cat typhoid—descended in the Greater Boston area. A number of owners of cats died as a result with the owners originally placing the blame on poison "distributed by some unkind neighbor."

High temperature and lack of appetite were the two symptoms.

HISTORY OF RUSSIAN BLUES

As with a few other rare classes of cats, the Russian disappeared from the show rings until 1947. In August of that year the annual show was held in conjunction with the Canadian National Exhibition at Toronto. Among the entries in the domestic short hair division was Blue Boy, owned by a Canadian exhibitor. Mrs. Norah Andrews, judge of the event, made the discovery, being attracted to the cat with the green eyes. Since there was no class for Russian Blues under the

A. C. A. sanctioned show rules, it was judged as a domestic and lost out in the final awards BECAUSE OF THE COLOR OF THE EYES. The Blue domestic has orange eyes.

Later this same cat was exhibited at Buffalo, N. Y. in a show staged under C. F. A. sanction, placed in the domestic short hair class and carried off top honors in that division. It won similar awards at other exhibitions.

The story about Blue Boy is that the exhibitor obtained it from a sailor passing through Toronto.

CFA MAKES CHANGES IN OFFICER SLATE AT N. Y. C. MEETING

At the quarterly meeting of the Cat Fanciers' Association, held in New York City, October 22, Mrs. Claire Y. O'Bryon, 132 Edgemont Road, Scarsdale, N. Y., was voted to fulfill the unexpired term of secretary of the organization left vacant by the sudden death of Mrs. Karl B. Norton of White Plains, N. Y.

(Mrs. O'Bryon was notified of her appointment and accepted the position temporarily on October 24.)

A second vacancy was filled with Miss Lillian M. Goodwin of Teaneck, N. J. treasurer, taking over the vacancy of vice president in addition to her other duties, created by the death of Mrs. Orville H. Stewart of Washington, D. C.

It was announced that three new clubs had applied for membership and had been accepted. These are the Western Pennsylvania Cat Club, Mrs. Necolia W. Slobodian, secretary, 1072 Broadview Drive, Pittsburgh 7, Pa.; Middle Tennessee Cat Club, Mrs. John Paul Jones, secretary, 2016 Blakemore Ave., Nashville, Tenn.; and The Halifax River Cat Club, Mrs. J. H. Pickles, secretary, P. O. Box 3265, Daytona Beach, Fla.

Three clubs were dropped from membership because of prolonged inactivity. These are the Foreign & Domestic Short Hair Society (Calif.); Miami Valley Persian Society (Ohio); and the Quaker City Persian Society (Penna.).

ATTENTION TUCSON C. OF C.

When Seymour Ryan moved from Tucson, Arizona to Phoenix, his cat, Skipper, refused to make the trip and disappeared after he arrived at his new home. Later, when Ryan returned to Tucson on a business trip, he found Skipper at his former next-door neighbor's home. Skipper apparently had hiked 125 miles across the desert.

Ryan brought Skipper back to Phoenix but again he disappeared and turned up footsore in Tucson. "He wins paws down," said Ryan. He can stay in Tucson."

Leslie Elmendorf of East Leroy, Mich., has been accused of false pretenses by Mrs. Julia Lusby of Napoleon, Mich., who charges that she gave him two cats when he represented himself as an agent of the Jackson County Humane Society.

She alleges that Elmendorf really was obtaining the cats for a Chicago biological laboratory, and had also acquired other felines in Battle Creek, Albion and other Michigan communities.

Richard Lockridge and his wife Frances, creators of the famous radio characters, "Mr. and Mrs. North," who subscribe to Cats Magazine, are now working on a book on cats.

room and be comfortable. As they both thoroughly enjoy shows, we know a good time will be had by all; also we hope Ch. Fluffy's picture and that of Ch. Lom Suen Ling of Norcliff have made the dead-line and will appear in CATS. Norcliff was also represented at Rose City show in Portland Ore.

California Cat Club is in the final throes of taking entries; applications have had to be made early for this most popular show as space is limited. Several exhibitors from the bay area are showing there; we will report on these in January. Altogether there are nine shows scheduled for the Pacific Coast this season; many of these are holding specialty shows in conjunction—so it will be a busy season for cats and their owners.

To Novice Exhibitors may we offer a few words of advice: Do not rely on last minute bathing or powdering to put show coats in condition; unless absolutely necessary bathnig should not be done close to show dates; two weeks or ten days before show time is late enough. The same with powdering; if coats are to be cleaned with powder, it should be done well in advance and thoroughly brushed out so that the coat will be soft to the touch and glossy. Blacks and Smokes should not be powdered in the show room; it dulls their coats. I like listerine for a last-minute wiping better than alcohol—which most cats hate. After all it is the steady brushing and grooming day-by-day which counts not only with Long-hairs, but with Siamese; with the latter the great object is to keep the coat sleek and close-lying. Do not run around the show-room carrying your cat; it belongs in its cage and should be kept there; also do not overfeed at shows. If you do not understand the judge's decision, she will explain it to you after the awards have been made; do not ask her during the judging.
